Seat for China Debated in United Nations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) - Foreign Minister Wei Tao-ming of Nationalist China told the General Assembly today that to seat Communist China in the United Nations would encourage Peking in aggression to the point where war would be necessary.

Wei's remarks were for the assembly's annual debate on the China issue.

Cambodian Ambassador Huot Sambath launched the debate with introduction of a resolution to substitute Communist Chinese for Nationalist Chinese delegates in the United Nations and all related bodies.

Diplomats generally expected the assembly would vote down that proposal, and friends of Nationalist China said it would do so by a wider margin than last year.

The Chinese minister said the Red Chinese claimed the right "to subvert the independence of neighboring states" and U.N. membership would not "change their belligerence" but "only give them an opportunity to carry out their long-standing threat to 'reform' or rather destroy the United Nations."

Those who want to seat Peking are "motivated by fear of war," he said, but to admit Peking "purely on the basis of fear is to encourage it to move from aggression to aggression until there remains no tolerable alternative to war."

Mill Sets Up Offices at Ashdown Site

Nekoosa-Edwards Paper Company's Arkansas mill management group is now established in its new offices in the administration building on the site of the pulp and paper mill the company is building at Ashdown, Arkansas. The move to the new permanent facilities was completed last week.

Robert E. Collins, resident manager of the Arkansas mill, said that for the next several weeks the company will be adding to its staff of supervisory engineering, technical and operating personnel prior to the start-up of the mill next summer.

The administrative offices at the mill site now serve as headquarters for Mr. Collins and the advance group of supervisory and clerical people. Manufacturing personnel now stationed there include Russell K. Elston, production manager; William R. Laidig, plant engineer; George M. Fleming, paper mill superintendent; Thomas R. Tippy, pulp mill superintendent; Louis Freeman, technical services supervisor; Robert W. Morris, II, power plant superintendent; James F. Finnessey, finishing and shipping superintendent; Michael J. Bushner, staff engineer; and Harry Allwarden, storekeeper.

Supervisory administrative personnel now located at the new offices are William R. Hutchings, accounting and services supervisor; Thomas W. DuPree, general accountant; Edward F. LaBerge, industrial relations supervisor; and John E. Hughes, purchasing agent.

Helm, Oklahoma rail area forester; and Glen E. Sirmon, truckwood area supervisor.

Wants in the Memphis Area

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) - The U.S. Customs Bureau in Washington has been asked to include West Memphis in the Memphis customs area, Mayor R. E. "Bob" Eden said Saturday.

He said that customs checks would be needed more often now that the West Memphis airport has been authorized to receive air mail deliveries, and that inclusion of the airport in the Port of Memphis would eliminate the travel fee that now must be paid to inspectors.

Admits He's Man Mentioned in Warrant

HOT SPRINGS, ARK. (AP) - G. C. Cliff, 73, of Hot Springs, a former night club employee, confirmed Saturday that he was the man mentioned in an FBI warrant for the arrest of Earle T. Cook, 37, of Naperville, Ill.

The warrant charged that Cook had talked with Cliff six to seven times about killing Cook's wife, who was one of 74 passengers aboard a jet airliner that Cook is accused of trying to blow up.

"I have never threatened anybody in my life, and I certainly don't have any desire to kill anybody," Cliff said.

Cliff said he knew Cook, who was described in the warrant as one of his friends.

The federal document said that as early as 1964, Cook had asked Cliff to go to Phoenix, Ariz., and place a bomb-laden suitcase aboard a plane Mrs. Cook was to take. It said that on another occasion, Cook asked Cliff to go to California to shoot Mrs. Cook.

A dynamite bomb, triggered by a clock mechanism, was placed aboard an American Airlines Boeing 727 in which Mrs. Cook was flying from Chicago to San Diego, Calif., Nov. 11.

The bomb exploded as the plane flew over Colorado at about 34,500 feet, but some of the dynamite failed to ignite and the bomb damaged only the baggage compartment without piercing the aircraft's hull. The plane landed safely at San Diego with none of the passengers or six crewmen injured.

Cook, manager of a bottling company at St. Charles, Ill., was charged Saturday with violating a federal law against destroying or attempting to destroy an interstate aircraft.

He was ordered held in lieu of $100,000 bond after a hearing at Chicago.

A conviction would be punishable by a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison plus a $10,000 fine.

DEATHS
HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) - Mrs. Raymond C. "Dolly Good" Motley, one of the "Girls of the Golden West" singing stars in the heyday of radio, died Sunday at her home. Dolly, 51, and her sister Millie appeared on the Rudy Vallee Show, recorded for several major companies and were a featured act on the National Barn Dance from WLS in Chicago.

MIAMI (AP) - William J. Crawford, former aide to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and assistant editor of the Miami News, died at his home Sunday.

Crawford, 70, was publicity director for the Democratic National Committee in the 1928 presidential campaign and press secretary to Roosevelt when the latter was governor of New York.

policy, said of the discount rate rise: "I don't like it... the people are fed up with crushing interest rates."

Patman said the board used the devaluation of the pound as an excuse to raise the rate.

The board's action is effective today at 10 of the 12 Federal Reserve banks. Banks at Philadelphia and St. Louis are expected to follow suit soon.

Officials said the action is "intended as a demonstration that the United States is going to do what it can to maintain the dollar in international markets."

"This serves notice that the nation is not willing to let dollars flow out of here willy nilly," one source said in describing the move as a "modest precautionary step."

A rise in the discount rate from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent on Dec. 1, 1965, coupled with other tight money policies, sent interest rates last year to a 40-year high. The discount rate was returned to 4 per cent last April after interest rates and inflationary pressure had subsided.

Since then, however, some interest rates have risen even higher than they did last year.

There was no indication in Sunday's announcement whether the increase would trigger another round of tight money.

Cites Cost of Special Session

BLYTHERVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Mississippi County may leave one of its House seats unfilled until after next year's November General Election, even though Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has said he will call a special session of the General Assembly next January or February.

Bill Wunderlich, chairman of the county election commission, says an election would cost $3,100, and that the county needs to repair its roads more than it needs a fourth state representative.

The fourth seat was left vacant by the death of state Rep. L. H. Autry of Burdette, a Democrat, who was serving his 11th term.

"With the bottoms falling out of the county roads, I don't see where it can afford to spend the money just to get somebody in Little Rock for a few days," Wunderlich said.

acknowledged that more than 600 Air Force F105 fighter-bombers - widely used in Vietnam - were grounded in early 1964 because of propulsion problems.

The Pentagon said the sidelining of the planes followed eight instances of major fires and explosions aboard the Thunderchiefs during combat operations. But sources said the groundings lasted only two days and did not adversely affect the U.S. war effort.

The American Sociological Association said 5,000 of 7,000 sociologists responding to its survey expressed some degree of dissatisfaction with U.S. policy in Vietnam. The survey showed 75 per cent of the association's responding members favored de-escalating the conflict while more than 17 per cent favored an intensified military effort or continuation of the present U.S. course.

Reportedly Plane Is Hijacked

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - A twin-engine airplane was reportedly hijacked in Florida today by an unidentified Russian, and the pilot radioed the aircraft was being taken to Cuba, the Federal Aviation Administration said.

The FAA said the pilot said the man was armed, and that "he intends to take this plane to Havana."

The plane apparently had only the pilot, copilot and unidentified gunman aboard.

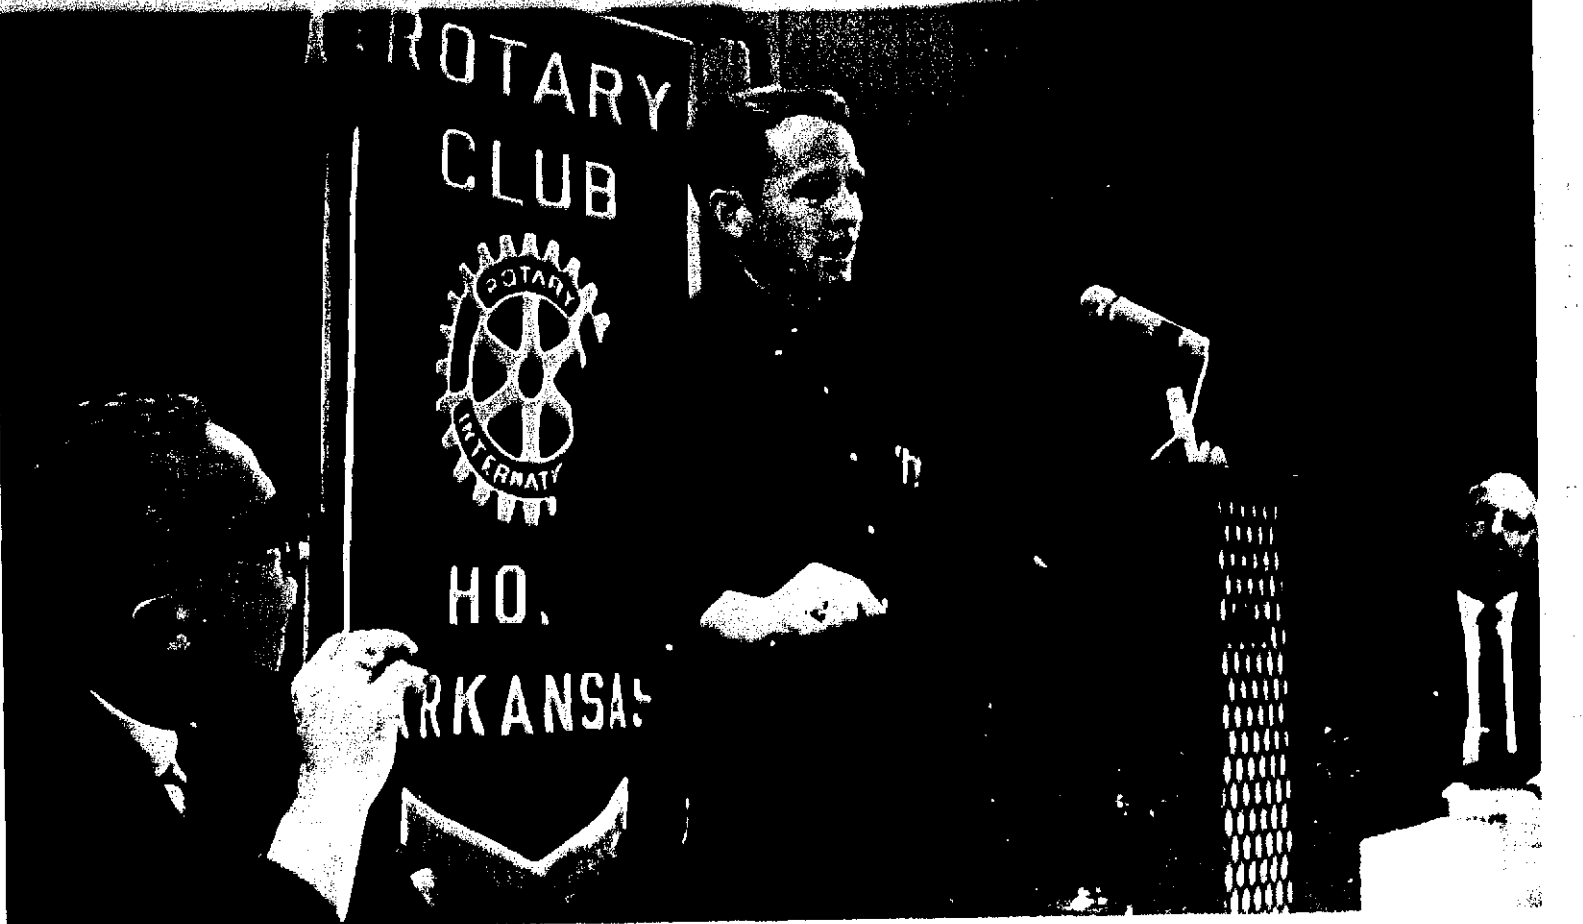

At one point, the unidentified passenger spoke on the radio and said that if two F104 aircraft from Homestead Air Force Base did not stop following the hijacked airplane, he would kill both the pilot and the copilot.

The FAA said Havana had radioed the FAA flight service center at Miami and said that Cuba would permit the airplane to land, that the passenger would be permitted to disembark, and the plane would be allowed to return to the United States.

Names of the pilot and copilot were unknown immediately, but the FAA said the plane was owned by General Aviation and the flight was scheduled from Hollywood, Fla., to Miami.

The aircraft took off from Hollywood at 11:45 a.m., FAA said, and five minutes later the pilot radioed that there was a man aboard with a gun who said he was going to take the flight to Havana.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) - Just as Rhett Butler and Scarlett O'Hara were trying to escape a blazing fire in "Gone with the Wind" - on the screen, a fire broke out Sunday in the building, housing the Hippodrome Theater.

No one was injured as 1,400 patrons fled out of the theater. Later Sunday, 60 patrons evacuated just as orderly from the East Theater, where a multi-alarm blaze burned an hour, destroying a heating plant and utility room. The film there was "You Only Live Twice."

The honoree was attired in a red wool knit frock trimmed in white, and her corsage of red roses and pink carnations carried out her chosen wedding colors. The mothers of the engaged couple, Mrs. H. W. Feazel of Coushatta, La., and Mrs. Gerald Trussell of Hope, had pink carnations corsages.

MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The Friday Music Club particularly enjoyed Mrs. Roy Stephenson's program November 17 on "Twentieth Century Sacred Music," for several notes of local interests were heard. The first performer, Mrs. Charles Batson, sang "Linger at Calvary" by Edward Cooper, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Richard Keyton, after first giving a brief sketch of the composer's life. He lives in Emmet and teaches English at Hope Junior High School, but he has had a number of his compositions published, including the one sung at the club meeting.

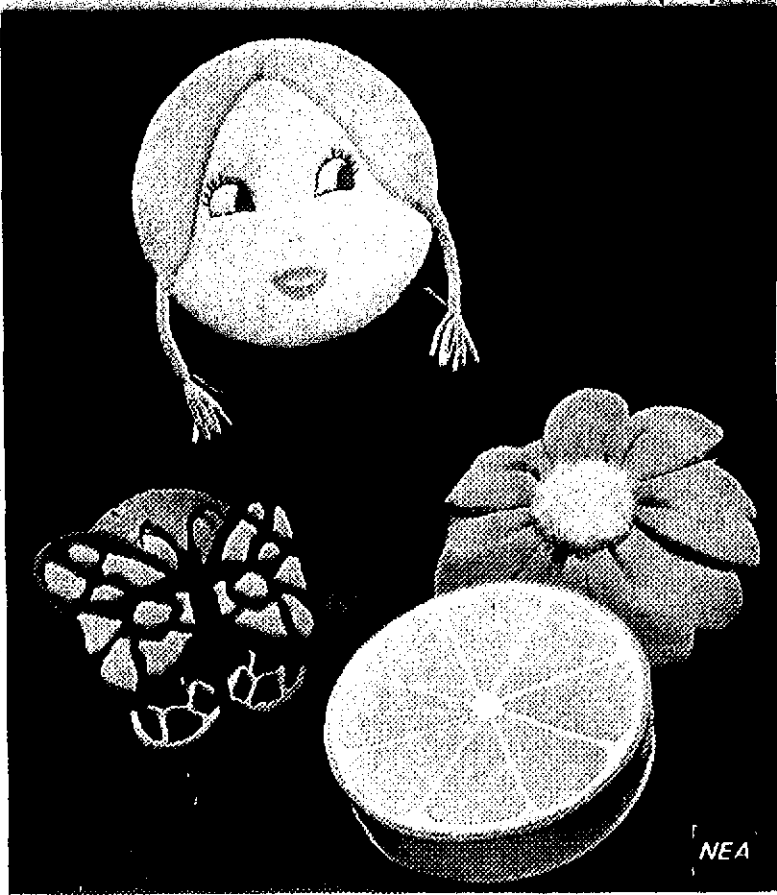

A piano solo, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" by William M. Runyon, was played by Mrs. Guy Downing, and Mrs. Don Johnson sang "Donald Humphries" "The Lord Is My Shepherd," accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt. Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. played "Rest In Peace" by Gordon Young as a piano solo. This well-known contemporary composer is a nephew of the late E. P. Young of Hope.

The sacred music by modern artists was concluded when Mrs. B. C. Hyatt played the Music Federation Hymn in a piano arrangement by Robert Groves. Mrs. W. E. White sketched the history of the Hymn of the Month, "Thanksgiving Hymn," and all joined in singing it.

Camellias and colorful arrangements in fall shades were seen in the home of Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr., where the meeting was held. She and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Arch Wylie and Mrs. Arthur Streech, served cake, nuts, and coffee to 16. Mrs. Sam W. Strong, Jr. was the presiding officer at the business meeting.

Forest Fires Hit South

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — More than 4,600 acres of woodlands were blackened by the wind-whipped flames of 200 forest fires in South Carolina over the weekend.

The outbreak began tapering off Sunday with 78 blazes reported and 725 acres damaged after Saturday's outbreak of 182 fires that swept 3,898 acres. The state has had a dry spell and the Weather Bureau said no rain of consequence was in immediate prospect.

All but a handful of the fires were quickly brought under control.

In North Carolina, trash burning permits were canceled Sunday in 32 western counties because of conditions conducive to forest fires. The North Carolina state forester, Ralph C. Winkworth said in Raleigh that 162 fires damaged 1,290 acres over the weekend.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There was a trade rumor recently that a variety show called "popendipity" featuring popular music and musicians was a strong candidate as a replacement series for one or another of ABC's midseason drop-outs.

It failed to make the schedule, but the pilot show was used Thursday night as the emergency replacement for the Carol Channing special. The latter has been postponed for at least two weeks pending the end of a technicians' union strike against the network.

The hour program consisted of an edited tape made at a performance in a Rhode Island tent theater last summer. It was something less than satisfying — particularly because we have seen many of the artists — soloists Astrud Gilberto and Duffy Saint Marie and groups like the Buffalo Springfield and The Four Seasons — performing under happier circumstances in the made-for-TV variety programs.

A theater is a confining place for a camera and a tent theater makes interesting effects almost impossible.

Flip Wilson, a young comedian and host of the show, tried hard to make jokes between the musical acts. Judging from the audience sounds on the tape, he had as little success with his live audience as he had with the living room viewers later.

Presumably Miss Channing's audience is one that includes large numbers of the "mature" viewers — and in televisionese that means people over 35. "Popendipity" was aimed at the younger segment of the audience — the college and high school crowd.

Two Horses Are Electrocuted

EL MONTE, Calif. (AP) — High voltage electricity killed two horses Sunday but the two young women riding them escaped injury.

Donna McCrosson, 21, and Sheila Armitage, 27, said they rode their horses between a power pole and a chain link fence. One horse brushed the pole, the other the fence and the two collided.

Police blamed a short circuit in the power pole. They said the two women apparently were insulated from the current by their saddles.

Is Christmas all sewed up?

If you're one of the many talented women who sews gifts for practically everyone on your Christmas list, chances are your sewing machine is working overtime right now. Somehow, our gift lists get longer, and our time-to-sew shorter each year.

If you're still on the lookout for gifts that are quick-and-easy to sew, here's a quartet of suggestions from the Talon design department.

These four pillows might be just what you need for young and light-hearted gifts to brighten the bedrooms of misses, to perk up the playrooms or to add a lively color accent to the living room.

Each of the four covers shown is proportioned to fit a 10-inch round pillow, which you can make yourself or buy ready-made. The decorative felt covers may be slip-stitched to the pillow covers, or attached with snap fasteners for quick changes.

The lemon wedge pillow is the simplest of the four, requiring only 3/4-yard each of gold, lemon and white felt. The wedges may be machine-stitched to the felt circles.

The pigtailed girl is the pillow most likely to appeal to young girls. She is made from 3/4-yard white felt, a few felt scraps and double-fold bias tape for hair. Her hair style and her coloring can be adapted to reflect the style and coloring of her young owners.

The butterfly, with its intricate wing pattern, is mounted on a black felt body and has antennae of black pipe cleaners. In pink and purple, it pairs nicely with the pink daisy pillow, made of only 1/4-yard of felt and a fluffy thread pompon.

For patterns and instructions on making the pillow cover, the thread pompons and the pillow slipcovers, send 50 cents to Stitchin' Time, P.O. Box 503, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y., 10019. Ask for Pillow Talk, leaflet No. J202. Be sure to include your name, address and zip code.

These pillows make good projects for scout troops or sewing groups as well as

HALF-HEARTED NOW—BROKENHEARTED LATER

Dear Helen: Should friends stay uninvolved when they know a wonderful girl is getting married because she is afraid to "case trouble" by calling off the engagement?

This girl is not very strong-willed. She is afraid of her fiancé. He is selfish and domineering and his parents back him up. A year ago she tried to tell him it was over, but he made such a fuss—and his folks browbeat her so much—that she caved in.

The marriage is set for December. Showers have been given. Invitations are out. His parents are master-minding the whole show, as she has only a widowed mother—who can't or won't see how unhappy her daughter is. After all, the young man is well-off, and that creates blindness in relatives.

Up to now her friends have stayed on the sidelines. Should we encourage her to think for herself—and to heck with family arrangements, recriminations, etc.—or should we just drink a toast to a halfhearted bride?—SLIENT FRIENDS

Dear Friends: If this girl is as browbeaten and mismatched as you say, she certainly needs to know her friends are on her side. Your sympathetic listening may keep a halfhearted fiancée from becoming a brokenhearted wife.—H.

Dear Helen: Your advice to "Trapped" was excellent. Thirty years ago, I too, was "trapped." I married the man I had been engaged to for four years, because I couldn't tell him I didn't love him. I truly believed he loved me and needed me.

After the wedding he became a different person. The bitter truth took years to unravel: He too, had felt trapped and hadn't let me know. Our marriage was based on deceit, and the dishonesty tore it apart. I grew neurotic. He stopped trying.

Christmas gifts. You'll find the directions and patterns so easy

After the divorce and his remarriage we became friends. The sad part is, I fell in love with him somewhere along the way, but by then, it was too late. The children had lost their father and I am --REPENTING AT LEISURE.

Dear R.A.L.W.: How true is that old Russian saying, "There is no greater loneliness than being lonely by the pair." But now that you're single, don't spend the rest of your life "repenting" or mourning lost love you never really felt. Get on with it!—H.

Dear Helen: Here's another side to the "Unmarried Married" problem. In our city, it was learned that many couples on welfare relief weren't really married because they couldn't afford divorces from former spouses. However, they lived as families, some for many years and, of course, produced children.

To make matters more legal, welfare arranged to provide divorces from long-gone mates guess what happened? The law stepped in and said, in effect, "You're living in sin, therefore, we must take your children away and put them in decent foster homes."

Naturally, the couple fought back.

The case, at this writing, is still to be tried. One thing it has accomplished: a close-down on applications for divorce via the welfare agency. These folks would rather live as respectable bigamists than chance losing their children in an attempt to make it legal.—LAW STUDENT Zipper is to be found everywhere. On coats, dresses, boots and even gloves. The new fashion look also means ultraconvenience, that is, until the zipper sticks. A couple of drops of baby oil on the teeth in the problem area and the zipper will function once more.

Sparkling Shirt

Create a dazzling legend together with your day and evening costumes with a sleek, fitting French-inspired shirt that sparkles with buttons, bows and rows of dashing ruffles. Have one in satin, burlap or French wool. Also great with culottes and at-home pants.

For Night on the Town

It's the crepes and velvets, the sequins and satins, the whiffy rounds of ostrich that spell out a night on the town. Tents with fluffy cuffed sleeves, shifts with borders of full feathers and matching trimmed stoles are great holiday fare.

Southern Cal Wins Bowl Bid

The Southern California Trojans kept their eyes on the flying ball, and it led them into the Rose Bowl.

Southern Cal, ranked fourth nationally, realized the kicks of top-ranked UCLA's soccer-style placement specialist, Zenon Andrussysyn, took a low trajectory.

The realization helped propel the Trojans to a 21-20 victory Saturday, a day when the lineup for the major bowl games began to take shape.

Stacking the center of the line, Southern Cal sent 6-foot-8 Bill Hayhoe and 6-foot-4 Tony Terry crashing through, arms outstretched, to block two field goal attempts. The pressure also came to bear when Andrussysyn missed his first field goal attempt and also his conversion try after UCLA's third touchdown.

Elsewhere, Minnesota moved to within one game of nailing down the other Rose Bowl berth, Tennessee and Oklahoma earned unofficial invitation to the Orange Bowl and Wyoming and Louisiana State apparently made the Sugar Bowl.

UCLA, now 7-1-1 with Syracuse still to play, kept their eyes on O.J. Simpson, but on two plays they couldn't get—or keep—their hands on him. Simpson, who rushed for 177 yards on 30 carries, ran 13 and 64 yards for TDs as the Trojans finished the regular season with a 9-1 record.

Gary Beban passed for 301 yards and two UCLA touchdowns.

Curt Wilson ran for four touchdowns and passed for another as Minnesota, 7-2-over-all, thrashed Indiana 33-7 and tied the Hoosiers in the Big Ten at 5-1.

If Indiana, 8-1 over-all, beats third-ranked Purdue, the Hoosiers will clinch the Rose Bowl berth even if Minnesota beats Wisconsin.

Indiana would get the bid over Minnesota because the Hoosiers have never gone to the Rose Bowl.

Tailback Walt Chadwick ran for one TD and passed for another as Tennessee, ranked second and now 7-1, beat Mississippi 20-7. The Volunteers still have to get by lowly Vanderbilt and Kentucky to win their first Southeastern Conference crown since 1956.

Oklahoma, 7-1, rallied from a 10-0 deficit and clinched a tie for the Big Eight title with a 14-10 victory over Kansas. The Sooners won it on Bob Warrack's 30-yard TD pass to Steve Zabel.

Wyoming also had trouble before beating Texas-El Paso 21-19. Jerry DePoyster's second field goal of the game put the Cowboys ahead 21-19, and then they had to sweat out a ruling by the officials.

Jerry Waddles of Texas-El Paso tried a 45-yard field goal with 20 seconds left. One official ruled it was good, another ruled it missed. After a consultation, the try was ruled wide and Wyoming finished its regular schedule with a 10-0 mark. No other major college team has finished or can finish with an unbeaten record.

Tommy Morel caught three scoring passes as Louisiana State trounced Mississippi State 35-0. LSU is only 5-3-1, but the losses were by a total of seven points.

Alabama, 7-4-1, might have gained a trip to the Cotton Bowl with a 17-0 victory over South Carolina. Kenny Stabler hit Dennis Human for a 36-yard TD pass—the first scoring pass completed against South Carolina this season.

The host spot for the Cotton Bowl still remains open, four teams still having a shot at the Southwest Conference championship and the bowl.

Texas A&M beat Rice 16-8 and leads the conference with a 7-1 mark and can win the title by beating Texas, upset 24-17 by Texas Christian Saturday, on Thanksgiving Day.

But there's still a chance for a four-way tie as Texas Tech, tied with Texas at 4-2, and TCU, 3-3, still are alive. Tech edged Baylor 31-29 on Kenny Vineyard's 37-yard field goal with 30 seconds left.

Florida kept its Gator Bowl hopes flickering by beating Kentucky 21-12. The Gators now 6-2, meet Florida State, 6-2-1, next Saturday, with the winner likely to go to the bowl.

Local Fans See Porks Down SMU

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Resting between the long haul of football season and the coming of basketball, this writer rode one of Mike Kelly's chartered buses to the Arkansas-SMU game at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas last Saturday.

Cheered by the thought that SMU was a down team and the Razorbacks were just coming into their own, many fans decided that the Porks were ready for their best effort yet. And during the pre-game warmups, it was evident that Arkansas was a confident team, and head coach Frank Broyles even appeared calm as he walked the field before the game.

Actually, the contest itself was to prove to be wild, but that's been the story of the Southwest Conference this year. From the game's opening kickoff to the final play from scrimmage, it was a crowd-pleaser all the way.

The Hogs looked sharp on defense in the early going, pushing SMU into their end zone for a safety. But then for 15 minutes of play it seemed as though the final score might be 2-0 for Arkansas. Then came a wild flurry of scoring right before the half, and the Mustangs went into the dressing rooms with an unimaginable 10-8 lead.

It was probably at this point that the Arkansas coaches decided that the rushing game was in for an unsuccessful day unless Ronny South could open up on the passing game which had been so lacking for the first two periods. Both teams returned fired up, but things were looking rough when the Porks took the second-half kickoff and drove in for another score that put the Razorbacks down 17-8.

Suddenly on the next possession South began to click with his passes, and he was able to depend on the running game to balance out easier with a confused defense. Arkansas drove for a touchdown, but SMU took the ensuing kick and hit on two passes to the Arkansas 47.

This was the time when Broyles had his session with the referee, who had apparently thrown his flag for an "ineligible receiver downfield" on SMU, then picked it up and continued about his way. Broyles since has said that it "was merely an error on the referee's part, as he mistakenly had thrown the flag on an Arkansas man."

Nevertheless, no matter what the call was, the happening visibly changed the Porks' attitude, and they were a different squad from there on in. After pushing SMU back twenty yards, the Hogs then coasted to their 35-17 win, completely dominating play from the controversial call.

In the meantime our group learned that good old TCU had come back to clip Texas' horns 24-17. When the score was announced, everyone in the Cotton Bowl combined for the loudest roar of the day. Later on we found that we had missed a dilly on national TV, as Southern Cal edged UCLA 21-20. Still, this writer was satisfied just by seeing the Razorbacks win a good game and go a long way toward next year, when most everybody will be returning. In 1968 the state of Arkansas will be able to boast of the South's finest team, if not the entire nation's. Razorback boosters from Hope filled three special busses last Saturday for the trip to Dallas and the U of A-SMU football game. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kelly headed the large delegation of fans. Among those going were:

Hope Girls to Again Try Bradley

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

In what should be a screecher this Tuesday night, the Hope Lady Cats go to Bradley to take on those famed Bearettes in a spirited rematch.

Of course, Bradley won their first meeting 76-64, but the Lady Cats proved that the time is near for Bradley to lose, and that 68-game string of victories might get its burial tomorrow night. The junior girls are also determinedly looking toward their evening opener with their Bradley counterparts, and they will be trying to avenge an earlier 49-34 defeat.

It's much easier to play well in a foreign gym when many supporters are behind you, so let's help fill that Bradley field house tomorrow night in time for the first game—at 6:30 p.m. You may witness a classical upset.

In case you haven't heard, the Fairview Cardinals pulled off a complete Cinderella story by taking the 4-AA title over the Malvern Leopards 7-6 before a SRO crowd in Malvern.

A triple reverse kickoff return did the trick, as Fairview, picked away down in the pre-season prognostications, finished an 11-1 season, with only a 14-13 loss to Smackover. Malvern went to 9-2-1 and the distinction of easily being second best.

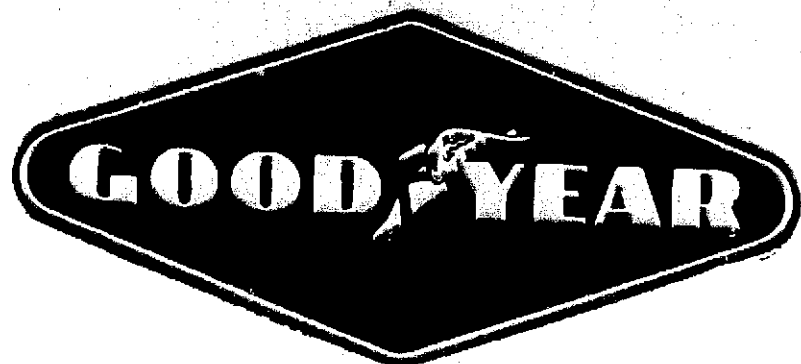

The Hope Bobcats basketball team continues to get ready for their Dec. 1 match with El Dorado, and coach Joe Austin has the squad down to 17 boys, listed here. The team includes ten seniors, Terry Hatt, Johnny Johnson, Larry East, John Henley, Dwight Galloway, Monte Garner, Richard Sallee, Donnie Middlebrooks, Wayne Norvell, and Gary McRoy. The four juniors are Ricky Putman, Doug Cross, Danny Feyenga, and Terry Turner. Sophomores are Ronny Brown, Thomas Norvell and Tommy Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver, Mrs. J. S. Gibson, Mrs. Frank Horton, Mrs. H. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rounton, Sam Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Franks of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Hilda Davis, and J. W. Franks.

Jim: "How does it feel to have 10,000 Master Points?"

Oswald: "Sort of relieved. As you know I just accumulated Master Points up to 1959 without thinking much about them. Then I decided to go after the No. 1 ranking seriously. It took me three years to get that and, as an incidental, I won the McKenney trophy for most points four out of the next five years. Then I decided to go on to 10,000. Now that I am there, I intend to take things easy and will expect to be passed by several people in the next few years."

Jim: "Judy and I think that it was wonderful that you hit the mark at home in Dallas by winning a team event with an all-Jacoby team."

Oswald: "My favorite hand of the event is one played by the Boss. When West doubled two diamonds I decided to redouble. I really hoped that someone would run out, but no one did. West opened the king of spades and continued. The Boss ruffed, took a club finesse, ruffed another spade, led a club to the ace, ruffed a club and started on the heart suit."

Jim: "I don't suppose that she did this with any speed."

Oswald: "No. Each card was played as if someone were pulling it out of her hand with pliers, but she had eight tricks in and poor West was down to four trumps. She led her last heart. West had to trump and lead a diamond to her. So she wound up with two overtricks."

Jim: "It was just as well she did. Judy and I got into real trouble ourselves and thought that our 1,000 East-West minus at two spades doubled was a sure loser, but your plus 150 took care of it."

Thanksgiving for 40 Kintolk

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

The Old Yarmouth Inn at Yarmouth Port, Cape Cod, Mass., is widely known for food, graciousness and beautiful surroundings. It closes in October. But every year at Thanksgiving time the owner-managers, Kathryn and Harry Rudelt, invite at least 40 relatives to the inn. The oldest and the youngest guests are Mrs. Rudelt's 80-year-old mother and her most recent of 17 great grandchildren. Everyone stays for three days.

"Our food is old-fashioned New England. Thanksgiving dinner is a wonderful feast because it gives us a sense of belonging as we gather together to ask the Lord's blessing," Kathryn Rudelt enthusiastically reports. The Rudelts and their talented daughter Joan do all the cooking for visiting kin.

There are two 35-pound turkeys. Also many homemade rolls and cornbread, jams and jellies, apple, mince and pumpkin pies and a special casserole of several vegetables in a delicate sauce. "It saves a lot of passing at dinner," Mrs. Rudelt explains.

"Harry starts the turkeys at 4 a.m. Thanksgiving morning. His stuffing is sauteed chopped turkey livers and sausage, celery, onion and a tiny bit of garlic, seasoned with salt, pepper, and half sage and half

Pumpkin Cake Spiced with Thanks

PUMPKIN CAKE adds spice to feast.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

When the frost is on the pumpkin, Thanksgiving must be near. That can mean pumpkin soup (ever try it?), pumpkin pie and, of course, a handsome pumpkin cake decorated with tiny pumpkin candies.

SPICED PUMPKIN CAKE
2 cups sifted cake flour
1 1/2 cups light brown sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
3/4 cup mashed, cooked, unseasoned pumpkin
2 eggs
1/4 cup milk

Sift dry ingredients into a mixing bowl. Add shortening and pumpkin. Beat 2 minutes. Add eggs and milk. Beat 2 minutes. Turn into 2 well-greased, lightly floured, 8-inch cake pans. Bake 35 minutes in preheated 375-degree oven.

Frost with spicy frosting.

SPICED CREAMY FROSTING
1/4 cup softened butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon ground mace
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
2 1/2 to 3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons milk
1 egg

Mix together butter, mace and vanilla extract. Blend in 1 cup of the sugar and milk. Beat until fluffy. In separate bowl, beat egg white until it stands in soft peaks. Grad-

Don't Broadcast Runaway Appeals

CHICAGO (AP) — Parents of runaway children should not broadcast appeals for their return home, a University of Chicago professor says.

"Broadcast appeals or advertising deny the child any opportunity to save face," said Robert Nee, assistant professor of the university's School of Social Service Administration, spoke Monday at the annual conference of the Illinois Welfare Association.

"One important thing with adolescents," he said, "is a need to maintain status with their peers. Parents need to be able to set limits without humiliating them or breaching their sense of trust."

Governments Don't Go Broke—But Their People Do

Great Britain, a bellwether among welfare states, devalued the pound sterling over the week-end. Its official rate fell from $2.80 in U.S. exchange to $2.40 — a drop of 14.3 per cent.

Tourists will find plenty of bargains in England, their dollars buying 14.3 per cent more — but the Englishman at home isn't so happy. His cash and savings including life insurance are cut overnight almost one-sixth in buying power.

The news from London is chilling for welfare states around the world. Professional spenders are always telling foolish people that Government can't go broke. Technically this is true — but for all practical purposes it is false.

What the London development proves is that while Government itself may not go broke its people do. To save itself Government passes the bankruptcy buck to the people — and that's history's classic example of Government that continuously lives beyond its means.

There is more excuse for Great Britain's plight than for the same shadow to hang over the United States. England has lost her empire. Yesterday rich, she is poor today. You might say England had the welfare state thrust upon her.

But America, richest of all nations, has taken to the welfare state by choice. Now even rich America is shaken by the news of the financial disaster in London.

President Johnson says America's salvation depends upon an income tax increase. The Congress says our salvation depends on cutting domestic expenditures. The President speaks for Government — but the Congress speaks for the people.

Never forget for an instant that high finance is a deadly game of tag. Always the question is this: Who will "it" be — the Government, or the People?

It's that simple.

I'll say this for Harold Wilson, British prime minister: He's done his level best — but his country is poor.

By comparison, running a rich country, President Johnson has done nothing but squander the national legacy in a search for personal votes.

He pleads the emergency of a war in Vietnam. But such wars are something every nation has to live with. Britain lived with many of them, and before her time there were France, Spain, and Rome.

If you're the No. 1 nation you've got to act like No. 1. You can cut back on domestic spending and run the war, or "do political business as usual" — and pass the buck to the people. America is No. 1 — and President Johnson is the No. 1 Buck Passer.

Constitution Revision Meet Here

Two representatives from the Arkansas Constitutional Revision Study Commission in Little Rock will speak at an Open Meeting to be held Tuesday, November 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the School Administration Building, 117 E. 2nd. The meeting is sponsored by the Hempstead County Republican Women's Club, and the public is invited.

A question-and-answer session will follow. This should prove to be an educational program for all those interested in an improved Constitution for the State of Arkansas.

Prescott Man Shot to Death

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The fatal shooting of Edgar Arlin Griffith, 54, of Prescott has been ruled accidental after a coroner's inquest here.

The Ouachita County sheriff's office said Griffith was on a deer stand Saturday when he was struck by a single shot from a rifle carried by Richard Isom, 45, of Camden.

He said Isom was leading a pack of dogs down a hill about 150 yards away from Griffith's deer stand when his 30-30 rifle discharged accidentally.

Senate Set to Pass SS Measure

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appears ready to wrap up before Thanksgiving its work on one of the most sweeping Social Security bills ever considered by Congress.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has set early opening schedules for the next two days and obtained a strict limitation on debate on all remaining amendments. This is expected to bring final passage of the legislation on Wednesday.

The final form of the measure then will be determined in a conference between the Senate and House, which passed the bill last August.

In three days of debate last week, the bill's managers succeeded in maintaining it in nearly the form in which it won Senate Finance Committee approval.

Many more amendments remain to be acted on. The biggest test is expected on a Republican move to substitute the House bill for the version worked out by the finance panel.

In passing on this, the Senate will determine whether it wants to go along with a much larger benefit increase and also much higher taxes that the committee wrote into the legislation.

The committee's bill would assure all persons now on the benefit rolls at least a 15 per cent increase with a 59 per cent hike for those at the bottom of the scale.

The minimum payment would be raised from the present $44 a month to $70.

The House voted for a boost of at least 12 1/2 per cent in benefits and a $50 minimum.

On the tax side, the big difference between the two versions is in the eventual wage base on which the payroll levies would be paid.

The House voted to boost the base to $7,600 a year from the present $6,600. The Senate Finance Committee plan would raise the base to $8,000 next year and eventually to $10,000 in 1972.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, senior Republican on the committee, said the GOP attempt to substitute the House bill probably will come Tuesday.

SNOW PILLOW is a new technique developed by the Agriculture Department for measuring winter snows and runoff water they are likely to yield for crop irrigation. Instruments inside pillows, such as this one at Stevens Pass, Wash., record snow cover pressure and transmit the information to a central office. Reports from several strategically placed pillows are compiled for an estimate of water from melting snow the following spring.

U.S. Celebrates a Milestone--Population Passes 200 Million

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States celebrates today a milestone some experts contend should have been observed more than two years ago—a population of 200 million people.

About 11 a.m. EST, this country—officially at least—becomes the fourth nation in the world—behind Communist China, India and the Soviet Union in that order—to reach and pass 200 million.

Alexander B. Trowbridge, secretary of commerce, under whose jurisdiction the Census Bureau falls, is to lead the celebration in the Commerce Department lobby where a census clock has been ticking off population gains for 40 years.

The clock now registers a net gain of one person every 14 1/2 seconds based on one birth every 8 1/2 seconds, one death every 17 seconds, an immigrant every 60 seconds and an emigrant every 23 minutes.

Timing is based on recent averages rather than actual births, deaths, arrivals and departures and the timing is changed as the averages change.

A private group, the Population Reference Bureau, contends the basic calculations are all wrong. It says the Census Bureau missed 5.7 million Americans in the 1960 nose count.

Actually, the reference bureau said, the United States population probably surpassed 200 million in the spring of 1965 and could be at least 206 million now. It said its contention is based on 1960 census figures indicating there were far more Negro women than men, and concluded some Negro males must not have been counted.

The Census Bureau conceded the possibility of a higher population but stuck by the basic fact on which the 200 million estimate is based—a 1960 population by its count of 179,323,175.

The 200 million figure includes not only U.S. residents but American servicemen abroad. In the first census in 1790, the Bureau counted 3,929,214 Americans.

It took until 1915 to reach the first 100 million but the bureau said the 300 million mark could be reached by the turn of the century, in only 33 years.

Board Acts to Protect U.S. Dollar

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Reserve Board's discount rate moved up a notch today in what officials described as an effort to protect the dollar in the wake of the British pound devaluation.

The rise from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent is identical to one put into effect on Dec. 5, 1965, but that was for a different reason—to stem inflation. It triggered a year of tight money.

This time, however, the move is designed to prevent a heavy flow of dollars overseas in search of higher interest rates. It's expected to have little immediate effect on consumer interest rates in this country.

When it devalued the pound on Saturday from $2.80 to $2.40, Britain also raised its discount rate from 6 1/2 to 8 per cent.

The U.S. discount rate is the interest commercial banks must pay the Federal Reserve for money they borrow from the system. Other rates are pegged upward from it.

In this case, however, the board is bringing its rate more in line with interest rates elsewhere in the world economy rather than tracking new ground.

Interest rates generally are at their highest level in almost half a century.

But some officials said the higher discount could tend in the long run toward an increase in rates consumers pay for loans. In this connection it could have an anti-inflationary effect but officials emphasized that would be only a side effect.

The Federal Reserve acted at an emergency Saturday night meeting and its decision was announced Sunday.

There was no immediate reaction from the White House.

A statement by Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler said nothing about the discount rate and mentioned worldwide cooperation to help the British. He expressed confidence the United Kingdom would achieve its objective of improved competition in world markets.

But Chairman Wright Patman, D-Texas, of the House Banking Committee, a frequent critic of Federal Reserve Board

Pound Devaluation Brings Another Big 'Battle of Britain'

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The devaluation of the pound sterling signals another great "Battle of Britain" and, as in previous military and economic wars, much of it will be fought with the sweat and tears of its ordinary citizens.

As in other wars also, the battle might involve many nations before it is won. And time will be a formidable adversary; Britain must act very fast to capitalize on its currency devaluation.

British workers are "now on their mettle," said Prime Minister Harold Wilson. They must make more goods to raise exports to earn money to pay their nation's bills. And they must deny themselves the rewards of working harder.

For six straight years Britain has been unable to send more goods abroad than it imported, meaning it was living beyond its means. This diluted the relative value of its currency. Devaluation acknowledged this.

This latest predicament of Britain deeply involves the United States, among many other nations. There are bound now to be suspicions that this country, which also has a balance of payments problem, might devalue the dollar.

Such rumors will be termed ridiculous by monetary officials, but they are far from being absurd. The economies of the world's trading powers are like threats in a fabric; the value of their currencies is in relation to each other.

Sunday's boost in the Federal Reserve lending rate was recognition of this fact; it was proof also that what affects the currency of one trading power—and Britain is the third most important—has immediate effects elsewhere.

In raising from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent the price it charges banks to borrow, the Federal Reserve conceded that investment money could begin to flow from the United States to Britain, attracted by rate increases there.

This, then, is perhaps the most immediate effect of the British action, and it is a very important one, too, for after a delay of weeks or months it likely will exert pressure on all other interest rates.

Such an occurrence could create a serious situation in the U.S. economy. The housing industry, for example, is now recovering from a money shortage caused by higher interest rates elsewhere. Another shortage would be intolerable.

There is additional heat from Britain's war that also may be felt here soon. Since Britain's credit results from an adverse balance of payments, there is likely to be more congressional pressure for the United States to

U.S. Troops Hard Hit by Enemy

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese regulars surrounded a U.S. paratrooper battalion on a hill near the Cambodian border in South Vietnam's central highlands today and with heavy ground assaults and mortar attacks apparently inflicted heavy casualties. An American relief force reached the scene at dusk.

The battalion of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade was cut off for 24 hours before the reinforcements arrived to break the Communist attack and bring out dead and wounded. Heavy enemy ground fire kept rescue helicopters away.

Associated Press correspondent John Lengel reported from Dak To, about 15 miles from the fighting, the heavy communist fire set off a huge explosion inside the U.S. perimeter, possibly causing heavy casualties. It could not be determined immediately what caused the blast.

The fighting, perhaps the most vicious yet in the highlands campaign, came as U.S. planes bombed the Hanoi-Haiphong area for the fifth straight day on Sunday. The attacks included blows against the fifth and six targets to come off the Pentagon's restricted list in four days. They are a concrete plant and a large yard near Hanoi.

The U.S. Command announced the loss of four planes, bringing the total number of losses over the North to 749 aircraft. The four planes carried six crewmen, all of whom are missing.

The belief grew among American commanders that the Communists at Dak To are trying to do what they achieved earlier this year just below the demilitarized zone—draw large American forces away from thickly populated areas and pin them down in the sparsely settled mountains.

Some 6,000 Americans and 4,000 South Vietnamese now are at Dak To, 270 miles north of Saigon, opposing an estimated 6,000 to 8,000 North Vietnamese.

North Vietnamese soldiers dug in on a hill 14 miles southwest of Dak To killed 40 paratroopers of the U. S. 173rd Airborne Brigade and wounded 42 in an all-day battle Sunday. The paratroopers swept the battlefield today, but there was no immediate report of how many enemy bodies they found.

Field reports told of three clashes within 600 yards of each other.

The North Vietnamese broke contact after seven hours under a heavy bombardment by U.S. fighter-bombers and artillery.

Elsewhere in the area, two U. S. 4th Infantry Division companies fought four miles south of Dak To and the South Vietnamese reported a victory Saturday on Hill 1416, five miles northeast of the Dak To airstrip.

The 4th Division reported three U.S. infantrymen and seven North Vietnamese soldiers killed and 12 Americans wounded. The South Vietnamese said their paratroopers and U.S. planes killed 390 North Vietnamese regulars on Hill 1416.

Alworth Takes Pass for Victory

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
It was a "must" game for Oakland, one the Raiders had to win to stay atop the Western Division standings in the American Football League. But the price they paid for it may have been too high.

Clem Daniels, their leading rusher and No. 4 in the league, and linebacker Bill Laskey went out with ankle injuries—Daniels possibly with a fracture—in the Raiders' 31-17 victory over Miami Sunday.

Both Daniels and Laskey are expected to miss the Thanksgiving Day game against tough Kansas City while San Diego, only one-half game back, plays a weak Denver team.

SAN Diego stayed close with a 37-16 edge over Kansas City, Denver nipped Buffalo 21-20 and New York held off Boston 29-24 in the other AFL games.

In the National Football League, Baltimore crushed Detroit 41-7, Los Angeles whipped Atlanta 31-3, Cleveland nipped Minnesota 14-10, Philadelphia beat New Orleans 48-21, New York took Pittsburgh 26-20, Chicago blasted St. Louis 30-3, Green Bay blanked San Francisco 13-0 and Washington defeated Dallas 27-20.

Daryle LaMonica threw touchdown passes of 8, 9 and 46 yards to Billy Cannon for all the points Oakland needed to beat the young expansion team from Miami.

Daniels took over from the one for another touchdown, his sixth of the season. For the year, he has rushed for 575 yards on 130 carries and has taken 16 passes for 264 more yards. In the game he rushed eight times for 35 yards and took two passes for 35.

Bob Griese, Miami's rookie quarterback from Purdue, passed for one touchdown as the Dolphins took a surprising 1-7 halftime lead before the Raiders got untracked.

"We had them on the run for a while," Miami coach George Wilson said. "Griese played well and called a good game."

Jan Stenerud, who kicked field goals of 12, 4 and 22 yards for Kansas City, missed one from 24 yards out with 19 seconds remaining, and San Diego escaped with a one-point victory.

The Chargers turned back two Kansas City thrusts with great goal-line stands, then mounted an 85-yard touchdown march for the touchdown that tied it 16-16 with 8:31 remaining. Jim Hadji's two-yard pass to Lance Alworth capped it, and Dick Van Rastorst kicked the extra point that won it.

The Namath tossed a couple of bombs as the New York Jets built up a 29-3 lead before Boston came back with a three touchdown rally to make a game of it in the final quarter.

Don Trull scored the first two Boston touchdowns in the rally on one and two-yard runs, then passed 40 yards to Jim Whalen for another one. Namath connected on a 45 yard pass to George Sauer and a 75 loss to Don Maynard.

Denver turned a pass interception and a fumbled kickoff into two second period touchdowns in a 36 second span, then just held off the Bills. Buffalo's Mike Mercer missed on a potential game-winning field goal from 24 yards out with 19 seconds left.

Steve Tensi passed 2 and 14 yards to Al Denson for Denver touchdowns, while Jack Kemp tossed 19 and 3 yards to Keith Lincoln for Buffalo scores.

Powder Puff Game Set Friday Night

Girl's punts and screams and curlier's flying are some of the sights and sounds on the practice field at Hope High as the Junior and Senior Girls prepare for the annual Powderpuff Football Game to be held at Hammons Stadium, Friday, November 24, at 7:00 p.m.

For the last few years, the Seniors have capitalized on their past experience, but each year the Juniors become more difficult.

There will be a variety of half-time activities provided by the majorities and cheerleaders who were chosen by both teams from their male counterparts.

This Student Council sponsored event will be climaxed with a dance at the Youth Center from 9:00 to 11:30. Music will be provided by the Squires from Texarkana.

Arkansas S. Is Winner Over Trinity

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas State quarterback Tim Kwane threw for two touchdowns as the Indians defeated Trinity University 13-10 here Saturday night and secured a third place in the Southland Conference.

Kwane hit halfback Benny Winford for 44 yards and a touchdown and then hooked up with fullback Steve Gankiewicz for 13 yards and the winning touchdown.

ASTU scored its first touchdown after Dick Dutcher intercepted a Trinity pass in the first period.

Trinity drove for the tying touchdown with Gary Champion going the final seven yards with 1:19 left in the half.

Ligon's Free Tosses Win for Pipers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Hawk soared, but not high enough to keep the Pittsburgh Pipers from being shot down by Jim Ligon.

Connie Hawkins made 14 field goals and 10 out of 10 foul shots for 38 points and Pittsburgh led with about a minute to go Sunday, but then Ligon sank two free throws with 16 seconds left to give the Kentucky Colonels a 103-102 victory.

Ligon finished with 26 points and Darrel Carrier added 21 as the Colonels snapped a five-game American Basketball Association losing streak.

In other ABA games, Houston downed Dallas 100-94, Oakland nipped Anaheim 102-100, and Minnesota edged Denver 97-96.

San Francisco clobbered San Diego 142-124 and Seattle outlasted Detroit 132-130 in overtime in the only National Basketball Association play Sunday.

John Beasley's 29 points paced Dallas. Bob Verga added 22 for the Chaparrals, and Leary Lentz led Houston with 21.

LaVern Tart scored 13 of Oakland's final 15 points, including the final two on pair of foul shot to break a 100-100 deadlock with 11 seconds left. Tart finished with 40 points. Bob Bedell and Les Selvaige paced Anaheim with 21 apiece.

Denver took a 95-95 lead with 1:27 remaining, but then Mel Daniels won it for Minnesota. Don Freeman topped the Muscovies with 27 points and Willie Murrell was high for the Rockets with 23.

San Diego Did Better on Wet Floor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The San Diego Rockets did better on a wet floor.

The Rockets were trailing the San Francisco Warriors after nine minutes Saturday night when the game was called because of a wet floor, but Sunday night on a dry floor they were behind 34-21 after 12 minutes.

Things didn't get better either, the Warriors eventually winning the National Basketball Association game 142-124.

In the only other NBA game Sunday, Seattle beat Detroit 132-130 in overtime.

Kentucky nipped Pittsburgh 123-102, Houston topped Dallas 124-104, Minnesota edged Denver 77-70 and Atlanta squeaked by Anaheim 120-119 in Sunday's American Basketball Association action.

The wet floor at San Diego was caused by condensation from ice beneath the floor. The basketball court had been placed over the ice, which was used for a hockey game Friday night.

It was just a matter of shooting Sunday night. The Warriors, led by Rudy LaRusso's 17 points, hit on 52 per cent of their field goal attempts to 29 per cent for San Diego and built up a 29-point lead in the first half.

LaRusso, who sat out the fourth quarter, finished with 29 points. Dave Gambee and Don Kofis each scored 17 for the Rockets.

Seattle won when Bud Olsen tipped in a rebound at the final buzzer of the overtime period. Detroit led sent the game into the extra period when John Tresvant made a foul shot with 15 seconds left to tie the score at 119-all.

Bob Rule topped Seattle with 31 points. Detroit was led by Dave Bing, also with 31.

Chicago Bears Are Finally Coming Alive

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Bears, who spent half a season prying open the bomb bay doors, have started dropping blockbusters all around the National Football League.

Chicago, which failed to complete a touchdown pass until the closing minutes of its seventh game, blasted St. Louis 30-3 Sunday as Jack Concannon tossed scoring bombs of 51, 67 and 93 yards.

A week ago, sub quarterback Larry Rakestraw stepped in after Concannon was shaken up in the second quarter and unleashed three TD passes in a 34-7 triumph over the New York Giants.

"I guess you have to give Larry a little credit for my big day today," Concannon said after riddling the Cardinals' defense for 320 air yards. "Sometimes, these things can be contagious."

The Bears' third straight victory squared their season record at 5-5 in the NFL's Central Division. The loss dropped the Cards, 5-4-1, out of first place in the wide-open Century Division race.

Cleveland, 6-4, grabbed the Century lead by edging Minnesota 14-10 on Leroy Kelly's three-inch TD play with 28 seconds to play.

The Giants, 5-5, also stayed in contention, one game off the Browns' pace, with a 28-20 victory over Pittsburgh—but lost running back Tucker Frederickson for the remainder of the season when he suffered torn ligaments in his right knee.

Unbeaten Baltimore drubbed Detroit 41-7, Los Angeles downed Atlanta 31-3, Green Bay blanked San Francisco 13-0, Washington surprised Dallas 27-20 and Philadelphia smashed New Orleans 48-21.

The eight-game program established a one-day NFL attendance mark of 482,999, the per-game average topping 60,900 for the first time ever.

In the American Football League, San Diego nipped Kansas City 17-10, Oakland trimmed Miami 31-7, New York topped Boston 29-24 and Denver edged Buffalo 21-20.

The Bears spotted St. Louis a first-period field goal by Jim Bakken before moving ahead to stay on Concannon's stay-at-home, which capped a 51-yard drive.

Concannon's 93-yard bomb to Dick Gordon—longest TD pass play in the league this year—then touched off a 10-point second period burst. Concannon also pitched 51 yards to Ed Jones and 27 yards to Gordon for touchdowns.

Kelly's second touchdown in the game married Cleveland past the Vikings after Walter Johnson recovered Dave Brown's fumble in the Brown 47 with 1:02 remaining. Kelly carried four times for 47 yards—missing the final inches—in the winning march.

The Giants lost Frederickson and defensive tackle Jim Murray, who broke his left leg in the first period. But Randy Mumfery, hitting for Frederickson, scored two touchdowns and Frank Tarkenton passed 17 yards to Aaron Thomas for another as New York overcame an early deficit.

The Colts' Johnny Lattas missed a Detroit by turning in a 47-yard running attack that lasted 1:01 yards. Tom Matte led the way with 11 yards and two TDs in 17 carries as the Coastal Division leaders secured their second win.

A 14-point final quarter saw the Colts past Atlanta and left the game behind Baltimore in the Coastal race with a 27-10 lead. Roman Gabriel scored on a 47-yard streak and passed 27 yards to Bernie Casey for another touchdown as the Colts' comeback failed, leaving the Colts quarter worst.

Nixon Has Topped Poll of Delegates

By RILMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has topped an Associated Press poll of delegates to the 1964 Republican National Convention as their favorite for the presidential nomination next year, and California's Gov. Ronald Reagan emerged as an overwhelming choice to be the vice presidential nominee.

A majority of those participating in the survey said they favor a Nixon-Reagan ticket.

However, a combination of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Reagan received a substantial number of votes and ran second as the strongest potential GOP team.

Reagan received support, mostly for the vice presidential nomination, in all 50 states.

Associated Press bureaus submitted questionnaires to the 1964 delegates in the nationwide poll. The response was slightly more than 44 per cent.

Of those replying, more than 42 per cent said they expect to be delegates again in 1968.

The principal questions and results were:

Whom do you favor for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination?

Nixon—46 per cent
Rockefeller—20
Reagan—19
Gov. George Romney of Michigan—7

Others—8

Whom would you name as the strongest candidate?

Nixon—45 per cent
Rockefeller—24
Reagan—22
Romney—6
Others—3

What combination would constitute the strongest ticket?

Nixon-Reagan—40 per cent
Rockefeller-Reagan—29
Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois received 57 votes for the vice presidential nomination, teamed with Nixon, Reagan or Rockefeller.

Others named for second place on the ticket, with their votes, were Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio, 16, Sen. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, 10, Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, 8, Sen. Thurston Morton of Kentucky, 6, and Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, 5.

The results of the survey tally in some respects with an Associated Press poll of state chairmen and members of the GOP National Committee, taken last October. But there were also significant differences.

In both polls, Nixon ran first as the favorite for the nomination, but he received fewer votes in answers to the question as to the "strongest candidate."

In the October survey, Romney ran second, ahead of Rockefeller, as the GOP leaders' choice whereas he was a poor fourth in the voting by the former convention delegates.

A Rockefeller-Reagan combination was voted the strongest team in the earlier poll, with a Nixon-Reagan ticket well behind.

In the answers to all three questions, Reagan's showing was better in the second poll.

There were numerous comments about Reagan in the former delegates' replies.

"Until recently, and for as long as he's been in public life, I have definitely been committed to Nixon," said Sue Odum, of Savannah, Tenn. "But the more I see of Reagan and study his political views, I'm being drawn to him."

"I favor Reagan," said Al Snipes, former Oklahoma County GOP chairman. "I think he would poll five to 10 million more votes than Nixon, but I think Nixon could beat Johnson, too."

Said an Indiana delegate who asked not to be identified, "I believe Reagan's ability to reach the average voter with his ideas, his TV image, and his ability to unify the party make his nomination a 'must.'"

In the latest poll, as in the October survey, a number of Republicans said Nixon was their personal favorite for the nomination but expressed doubt that he would be the strongest GOP candidate.

"I don't think there's anyone better than Nixon," said George Axtell, former Essex, N.J., County chairman. "But you have to have someone with appeal and Rockefeller is certainly popular now."

GI Is Worried About His Job
CINCINNATI (AP) — Willie Paul Williams' job worries are over.

The 20-year-old Vietnam veteran was discharged by the Marines 90 days early so he could take care of his mother who is incapacitated with a permanent back injury.

Williams arrived home Sept. 24 and started looking—but the best he could do was a dishwashing job even though he had been trained for warehouse work in the Marines. His troubles lasted until the Cincinnati Enquirer published a story about his plight.

"I have so many job offers now, I didn't know which one I should take," Williams said. He said he had decided to accept the offer of Gibson Greeting Card Co. and would start at 8 a.m. today.

SHOWBEAT

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Under the spreading pin oak tree is a plaque which announces that it was here, on March 9, 1842, that gold was first discovered in California. That's why Walt Disney called it the Golden Oak Ranch, and that is still its official name. But to most movie people it is simply the Disney Ranch.

It is one of the most popular movie locations, because its rolling, wooded terrain can double for almost any part of the world and, also, because it is only about a 45-minute drive from Hollywood.

Now it is doubling for Connecticut, as the Disney studio films "Year of the Horse" not far from the historic oak. This is a movie which has horse shows as its background, and a grandstand and horse show ring have been built. Above the grandstand is a banner which reads, "25th Annual Saybrook Horse Show."

Most of the horses, riders and trainers come from the ritzy Flintridge Riding Academy. The little girls look cute in their riding habits. Dean Jones, the picture's star, asked one tiny thing how old she was.

"I am five," she said.

"How long have you been riding?" Dean asked.

"Five years," she said.

Dean isn't a rider, but he doesn't have to be. In "Year of the Horse," he plays an ad man who gets the bright idea of naming a prize show horse for a product he is supposed to plug. The horse—Aspercel—is his script name—is played by a beautiful dapple grey named Sir Winston.

Jones is more at home on a motorcycle than a horse. He pointed to a steep hill not far away.

"I rode my bike up that hill one lunch hour," he said. "Norman (the director, Norman Tokar) came running over and yelled, 'I don't know what's in your contract, but please don't ride that thing now, when you could break a leg and ruin my picture.'"

Dean's only horseback riding in the film is in one scene when the horse runs away with him, so he doesn't have to look tall in the saddle. But his costar, Diane Baker, is supposed to be an expert horsewoman.

"I learned for 'Marnie,'" Diane says. "And if I'd kept up with it after 'Marnie,' this would have been no problem. But I didn't. So I had to work for two weeks at Flintridge before filming started, in order to look decent in the saddle."

Tokar says this is a rough picture, because all the actors have to be made to look good on horseback. Yet he says that is easier than attempting the reverse—getting experienced riders and trying to make actors out of them.

"But I'll tell you one thing," Tokar says, grimly. "My next picture will be all humans, without a horse anywhere."

It seems as though every Disney picture that is made

Monday, November 20, 1967 or released now is publicized as the last one Walt himself supervised or read or saw or this or that. The truth is that the Disney Studio has enough properties which Walt personally read and approved to last for 10 years. Dean Jones says that "Year of the Horse" is one of them, that Walt sent the book to him two years ago and urged him to do it.

Dean, at first, was reluctant. In the picture, he has a 14-year-old daughter. In real life, he has one 12, but he worried that he didn't photograph old enough to be believable in the role. But he was persuaded to try it anyhow.

Neapolitan Chicken in a Pot Is Easy

No drudgery with this chicken in a pot.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

A gala chicken dinner with the minimum of kitchen work, that's what we have here. The ingredients are waiting for you in your supermarket frozen food cabinet. Almost all you need is the desire to please family and guests with a festive dinner.

NEAPOLITAN CHICKEN IN A POT

1 large frozen chicken (3½ pounds)
1 pound thick-sliced bacon, diced
1 cup olive oil
1 cup pitted green olives
2 tablespoons brandy (optional)
1 cup chicken broth
1 package (1½ pounds)

1 frozen whole potatoes
2 packages (8 ounces each) frozen whole mushrooms
1 package (9 ounces) frozen cut green beans
1 package (10 ounces) frozen Fordhook lima beans
4 small tomatoes, halved
Parsley

Thaw chicken and remove giblets; wash and truss as for roasting. Saute bacon in olive oil in a 6-quart flame-proof oval roaster with lid. When bacon is cooked, add whole chicken and saute until golden brown on all sides. Meanwhile, soak olives in hot water for 10 minutes, then drain.

When chicken is browned, add brandy (if used) and stir to remove browned particles from bottom of roaster. Add drained olives and chicken broth. Cover and bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 1½ hours, or until chicken is tender. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Place frozen vegetables in groups around chicken. Top with tomato halves; season to taste with additional salt and pepper. Cover and continue to cook 15 minutes, or until vegetables are tender. To serve, place chicken on a platter and surround with clusters of cooked vegetables. Garnish with parsley. Four servings.

If you haven't a few minutes to vote, we don't have a few hours to listen to your political hindsight.

McDonald Now Has a Sporty Hat

By HAL BOGK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lowell McDonald, who brought his Bermuda shorts along when the National Hockey League's expansion sent him to Los Angeles, now has a hat to go with his sporty outfit.

McDonald scored the three-goal hat trick in the second period Sunday night leading the expansionist Los Angeles Kings to a 4-2 victory over the Montreal Canadiens.

It was McDonald who floored a visiting general manager earlier this season by showing up for a practice wearing Bermuda shorts in Los Angeles' 90-degree heat.

Sunday, he floored the Canadiens, beating goalie Rogatien Vachon three times in the middle period as the Kings wiped out an early Montreal lead, and then capping his night by setting up Brian Campbell's wrap-up goal.

Elsewhere, New York pounded ex-leammate Cesare Maniago with 56 shots and whipped Minnesota 5-2. Doug Mohns' late goal gave Chicago a 2-2 tie with Detroit, Boston battered Toronto 6-2 and Philadelphia shored St. Louis 3-2.

Donnie Marshall scored two goals, one of them the 200th of his NHL career, as the Rangers jolted Minnesota.

New York hammered away at Maniago with 44 of their shots coming in the last two periods. Boston gave a similar treatment to Toronto's Johnny Bower and Bruce Gamble and routed the Maple Leafs.

Ex-leaf Eddie Shack led the 56-shot assault, scoring two goals and assisting on another as the surprising Bruins moved within one point of the East Division lead. Bower started and made 30 saves in 34 minutes before Gamble took over.

Reports on State Tech Schools Differ

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A report prepared by the University of California at Berkeley on Arkansas' vocational-technical education program differs with a similar report from Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc. of Dallas, Texas.

The UC report, released Saturday by state Education Commissioner A. W. Ford, says the public image of Arkansas program is "very positive."

The LTV report prepared for the Ozarks Regional Commission, was critical of the program's "image." It said the emphasis of the program should be placed on more advanced technical training and training in plants, rather than training for basic skills.

The UC report said the very positive image was the result of strong leadership from the commissioner of education, the director and staff of the state Division of Vocational Education and the support of the governor and the legislature.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is known to favor the LTV approach which is being used in South Carolina to train workers needed to attract specific industries.

The UC report, which was filed with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and covered the situation in 36 other states and Puerto Rico, said interviews in Arkansas indicated that Arkansians viewed their present program as a good one but that they thought more on the ground as of instruction should be offered.

Ford said he disagreed with the LTV report because of the priorities it suggested. He said he thought the basic skills were more important because that type of program reached the low-income people who needed vocational training the most.

A second report from LTV is expected soon. It will list specific recommendations for the Arkansas program.

Tiner Adds Luster to AIC Records

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quachita's Johnnie Johnson, the Tigers' star, added luster to his record as the Arkansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference regular season came to a close Saturday.

Johnson, the league's leading rusher, scored three touchdowns and gained more than 200 yards on the ground as the Tigers defeated Henderson 29-17 and shot down the Reddies' bid for second place in the conference.

Tiner, who finished his career with numerous AIC records, hit on 30 of 60 passes for 361 yards and two touchdowns as the Bears fell to the University of Tennessee at Martin, Tenn.

Southern State kept conference champion Arkansas A&M from finishing conference play undefeated by scoring in the final two minutes for a 21-19 victory.

Harding defeated Central Missouri 21-13 and Southeast Missouri put down Arkansas Tech 21-19 in two non-conference games.

Johnson scored on runs of 71, six and one yards as the Tigers won 42 points in the fourth quarter.

Johnson wound up with 215 yards on 36 carries and gained 1,141 yards in 256 attempts for the season. Henderson could have finished in second place with a victory over Quachita.

The Reddies and the Tigers wound up tied for fifth with 3-3 records.

State College, Arkansas Tech and Southern State finished in a three-way tie for second with 1-3-1 marks.

Tiger's totals in the Bears' 46-14 loss to Martin Branch gave Johnson 1,141 yards for his four-year career. Fritz Ehlers, former T-10 coach of the Quachita Bulldogs, set the record with 1,170 yards.

Johnson wound up with 215 yards on 36 carries and gained 1,141 yards in 256 attempts for the season. Henderson could have finished in second place with a victory over Quachita.

The Reddies and the Tigers wound up tied for fifth with 3-3 records.

Police to Destroy Slot Machines

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—State Troopers armed with sledge hammers and fuel oil were set today to destroy slot machines and machine parts that supposedly had been destroyed previously by Hot Springs police.

The machines and parts have been in the possession of State Police since they were seized in a raid here Oct. 4 on an alleged slot machine repair shop. State Police Director Lynn Davis said that numbers on the devices indicated they were the same machines seized in another raid.

An employee of the firm where the machines were seized testified during an investigation here that the machines were battered and burned, but that he had helped them away and had passed them. He said he had Hot Springs officers were present when he retrieved them.

Major Judge Earl Mackin, who had ordered the machines here, issued a restraining order Friday after concluding that as a merchant he had the investigation turned up no evidence of wrongdoing on the part of Hot Springs police.

Davis said the machines and parts would be tested, burned and buried at 4 p.m. A spokesman for the Department said he didn't know how many machines were destroyed.

J. D. HOOVER

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J. — Private Robert D. Hoover, 24 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Imon Hoover of Route 1, McCaskill, was enrolled in the U. S. Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J. recently for intensive training in one of the 50 specialist courses taught here.

A graduate of Blevins High School, Private Hoover took his degree at Arkansas A&M College at College Heights in 1967.

Admission to the Signal School is limited to men of outstanding promise. Classed as a technical institute, the School gives major training in the technologies of electronic equipment, ranging from radio to "electronic brains." Meteorology, computers, television and both motion-picture and still photography are also taught.

Three Persons Die on State Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three persons died on the Arkansas highways during the weekend which began Friday evening at 6 p.m.

State Police identified the victims as Judy Stephens 16 of Kensett; Richard Coburn, 15 of Joiner and Gerald Pierce, 19, of Harrisburg.

Authorities said Miss Stephens was killed Sunday when the car in which she was riding left Arkansas 36 about two miles east of Kensett. Officers said she was a passenger in a car driven by James Brooks, 22, of Bald Knob. State Trooper Jerad Pankey said Brooks apparently missed a curve.

Coburn was killed Sunday when he fell from the back of a moving pickup truck on U.S. 61, about a mile and a half north of Joiner (Mississippi County). State Police said Coburn was a passenger in a truck driven by Bobby Davis, 30, also of Joiner.

Pierce was killed Saturday in a one-car accident at the intersection of U.S. 49 and 79 about 10 miles south of Brinkley. Officers said Pierce was the driver of the car which left the highway and ran into a ditch.

Judge Steel to Hear Case at Morrilton

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—A suit that grew out of a political feud in Conway County is scheduled for trial here Dec. 11 before Circuit Judge Bobby Steel of Nashville.

It alleges that Sheriff Martin Hawkins converted "substantial sums" of county funds to his own use and asks for an accounting of fines, fees, costs, salaries and commissions be collected between 1955 and 1961.

Fifteen taxpayers filed the suit in chancery court in May 1965, but it later was moved to circuit court, where it was dismissed without a hearing.

The Arkansas Supreme Court reinstated the case and ordered it transferred back to chancery court.

Steel will be sitting as a chancery court judge. He agreed to this last April, after attorneys from both sides failed to agree on 20 other judges.

Steel conducted a pretrial hearing at Hot Springs last week, but as in other hearings in the case, no details of deposition were made public.

Hawkins' attorneys are Jack H. Deschamps of Little Rock, former U.S. Sen. Nathan Gorman, and Gorman's brother, Ed Gorman. Both Gormans are from Morrilton.

The taxpayers are represented by Richard L. Arnold of Texarkana and Oscar Pender of Fayetteville, a longtime member of the Mississippi County Democratic Committee who withdrew his support in Republican primary, November of last year's gubernatorial race.
